

Personal Statement “Boot Camp” Workshops 2019

Beth Harrison, founder and Executive Director of Peninsula College Advising, is a former college writing professor and academic advisor. Peninsula College Advising Personal Statement Writing Workshops help students develop powerful personal statements and turn an arduous process into a rewarding one. Workshop sessions break the writing process into easy, manageable steps, provide the support to help students create top-notch essays, and take deadline stress away from parents.

- Offered for rising seniors in summer 2019.
- Choose a Monday-Thursday afternoon, evening or weekend session to fit your schedule; six total hours of group instruction and two optional hours of guided drafting time.
- Two one-hour individual consultations to develop, revise, edit and finish one 500-650 word personal statement and up to 4 shorter essays (350 words).
- Two follow-up email consultations also included.
- Topics covered are: evaluating personal statement prompts and sample essays, peer evaluation of essay openers and essay rough drafts, strategies for preparing and writing supplemental essays, tips for time management of the application process, professional evaluation and editing of essays by Beth.
- Class size is limited for small group interaction.
- Fee is $525 on or before April 1; $575 after April 1.
